KEEP UP THE PACE DURING SUMMER

Training Schedule Changes

Due to reurfing of various grounds some changes will occur in Term 4. See table (right) for summary. Other Programmes remain unchanged. A reminder Sydney Olympic Park schedule (PDF) is available in the red box on our website home page.

Please verify training is ON prior coming to Make Up sessions. Website is updated regularly with the latest changes. Thank you

TERM 4 - 2011

PROGRAMME	DAY	VENUE	TIME
All	Monday	Lough Playing Field	5 - 6:30pm
Basic Skills + Girls	Monday	Narrabeen	4:30 - 5:30pm
Basic Skills + Girls + Advanced	Monday	SYOP	See PDF online
Basic Skills	Thursday	Forsyth Park	6 - 7pm

New Initiatives

Due to demand Milan Academy will implement MILAN GIRLS from Term 4. This is a new Programme dedicated to Girls ONLY so that they can enjoy professional training with girls. So spread the word and Forza girls!

MILAN Girls

Learn Italian in the school holidays with soccer. In a joint venture with Co As It, Milan Academy are introducing in 2012 the combination package of learning Italian in the morning and soccer in the afternoon. Expressions of interest invited.

Summer Competition

In October, on Mondays both in Narrabeen and SYOP a 7V7 competition for 03/02/01 and 99/00 players will be organised. The Director of Coaching will select players to create an internal competition exclusively based on Programme players to keep players competition thirst, start building up potential teams for 2012 and work tactically.

Champion of Champions

Congratulations to the 3 teams in the 1st round of the Champion of Champions. All teams won U13 (2-1), U14 (3-2), U15 (4-0).

The 2nd round saw the U13 (2-0) and U15 (1-0) qualified for the next round while the U14 lost on Golden Ball penalty.

In Round 3, U13 (2-0) and U15 (2-1) both qualified for the Semis. Well done to all players.
