Milan is rich of historical monuments, including the magnificent Duomo Cathedral situated in the homonymous square in the city center from which the main streets depart, such as Corso Vittorio Emanuele II. Other places of artistic interest are Palazzo Reale (Royal Palace), Museo civico d'Arte contemporanea (Contemporary Art Museum), San Babila Square, Teatro della Scala (La Scala Opera House), Galleria Vittorio Emanuele (Vittorio Emanuele Gallery), Pinacoteca di Brera (Picture Gallery), S. Ambrogio Church and square, the famous Pirelli Skyscraper, the Modern Art Gallery.

San Siro Stadium

The San Siro stadium, a symbol of Milan just like La Scala and Duomo, was built in 1925 upon the initiative of Piero Pirelli who was at the time the President of Milan club. Over the years this temple of football has been renovated and widened several times. As of today it can host 85,000 persons. Under the south stands there is a museum that encompasses a century of Milan and Inter through the mementoes of important persons who have written the history thereof: historical jerseys, cups, trophies, all mementoes that have entered into football legend worldwide, earning above all a special place in the fans' heart.
